

Amble Puffin Festival

Terms and Conditions By paying the stallholders fee, you are deemed to have read and agreed to the Terms and Conditions of the Puffin Festival 2019.

Space Bookings: Bookings are by application only; these are reviewed carefully to ensure that an even mix of good quality products are being sold at the event.

Space Hire: Space hire fee includes space only. Stallholders are required to provide their own table, chairs, gazebo (etc) and to set up within the timeframes stipulated. Stallholders are requested not to vacate their stall until the stipulated time. Not only does this reflect badly on the organisers, but it is also disruptive and unprofessional. If for any reason a stallholder needs to leave early, please let the organisers know beforehand and we will try to accommodate you to ensure the least amount of disruption occurs. If you are booking for more than one day you must remove your stall in its entirety each evening as no security can be provided for your goods or your stall.

Arrangement of Space: Amble Puffin Festival organisers reserve the right to decide the arrangement and allocation of positions on the day.

Marketing: Amble Puffin Festival organisers will promote all events via our chosen social media routes, i.e. Facebook & Twitter. Flyers and posters will also be printed and distributed accordingly. Please note, it is also the responsibility for each stallholder to promote their events. We cannot be held responsible for the lack of footfall at any of our events as this is out of our control.

Refusal of Booking: Organisers reserve the right to refuse acceptance of a reservation. For reasons for example: unsuitability of the type of business or stall being booked, or any other reason given by the organisers.

Cancellation/ Non-attendance: Stall bookings cancelled by stallholders will not be refunded. If your booking cannot be confirmed by the organisers, however, your cheque will be returned.

Cancellation by organisers: Should any day or days of the Puffin Festival be cancelled by the organisers, stallholders will receive a credit note for another day, or a future event by the organisers.

Health and Safety: Amble Puffin Festival are committed to providing, maintaining and promoting the highest standards of Health, Safety and Welfare at our event. Under Health & Safety legislation, Stallholders are responsible for the safety of their table/ stall, i.e. setting items up in a safe & secure manner to avoid accidents, and the stall holder agrees to indemnify Amble Puffin Festival organisers against all claims arising out of negligence on the part of a stall holder and/or their helpers. Stallholders are responsible for all activities on/at their stall throughout the event, and any actions that could affect others as a result of their activity. Stallholders who do not adhere to these guidelines will be asked to leave the event. {If you choose to bring along children at the event, it is the stall holder's responsibility to ensure their safety and well-being is met at all times during the event.}

Public Liability Insurance It is advisable that each stallholder has sufficient up-to-date Public Liability Insurance in place at the time of the event. It is recommended if you come into contact with members of the public. Public liability insurance can cover you if you cause injury or damage to a person or their property during the course of your work. The minimum level of cover is £2 million, but you may need £5m or £10m depending on the nature of what you sell. Is it advisable to seek advice from your insurance provider. A copy of your Public Liability Insurance should accompany your application along with a Risk Assessment for your stall and/or activity.

Do not hang, stick, tape, glue, nail, screw or in any other way affix items other than on your own property unless discussed with the organisers first.
